10th Sunday in Ordinary Time—June 6, 2010

GATHER IN GOD'S NAME

IN SILENCE

Rowan Williams, Archbishop of Canterbury,
"Uniting Economic and Moral Literacy," Reflections, Spring 2010.

Living truthfully in the present means acknowledging that my actions and decisions in this moment, whether I like it or not, whether I intend it or not, create a future. ...here and now, I am making a future: my decisions create, or indeed potentially destroy, aspects of the world I live in.

THE WORD INVITES

Luke 18:7 & 8

"And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night?" asks Jesus.

Jesus answers, "I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them."

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP, LIGHTING THE CHRIST CANDLE

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING FOR GOD'S TEACHING on Psalm 119:97-104

Lord, how I love your law, my meditation all day long.

Your teaching makes me wiser than my enemies, for it is always with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your laws are my learning.

I understand more than the aged, because I obey your lessons.

I hold back my feet from evil paths in order to keep your word.

I don't turn away from your commands, for you are my teacher.

Sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey!

Through your instruction I understand; so I hate every false way.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from Heidelberg Catechism

I believe that the Son of God through his Spirit and Word, out of the entire human race, from the beginning of the world to its end, gathers, protects, and preserves for himself a community chosen for eternal life and united in true faith.

And of this community I am and always will be a living member.

*THE PEACE

Let us live in Christ's love.
